Drug flood into Britain means DEATH!

Editorial

By Eddy Morrison

Our front cover highlights one of the most terrible aspects of Sick Britain today. The tide of A Class and other drugs now flooding into the UK. Without any doubt this is linked to rising immigration and our "Rainbow Society". Heroin, cocaine, crack, MDP and even new incredibly addictive synthetic drugs are to be found in every town and city in the land.

The BPP is anti-drug - that has always been our stance. One of our concerns is that we are quite literally losing whole GENERATIONS of White youths to this dreadful curse. These are the youngsters who would be marching in our ranks but instead are huddled under viaducts and in shop doorways "shooting up".

I am pointing the finger directly at Jamaica and the Jamaican Yardie gangs as one of the main sources of our drug problems. Every flight coming into Britain from Kingston carries Jamaican "mules". A mule in drug terminology being a courier who is bringing cocaine into our blighted land. This is then for the most part turned into crack - the most addictive drug on the scene. Black Yardie gangs such as the recently jailed "Bling-bling" gang are making profits into the hundreds of millions on the back of British people's misery.

There is no way on earth in this short editorial I can cover the whole drug problem in Britain. So let's concentrate on the Yardies and their control of the crack scene. These are particularly violent Black criminals who carry guns as a matter of course. The number of Yardies now active in Britain is unknown but it may be as high as 10,000 active gang members!

The quickest way to put the brakes on the horror of crack and Yardie gun culture (not forgetting there is also a lot of Black on Black crime too) would be to ban ALL flights from Jamaica into Britain. Sod tourism - White British lives are at stake. The next line of defence is the death sentence for any major crack dealers, especially those proven to be selling to kids. Hanging must be reintroduced and used against the alien drug barons. Any minor Black Yardie caught should be deported immediately back to Jamaica no matter what his "passport status". At the moment those deported are buying false passports in Kingston and coming straight back loaded up with more cocaine. We have a revolving door which is out of control.

The BPP says crack down on crack and crack down HARD!

DOUBLE STANDARDS OVER ISLAM

That demagogues and agitators are exploiting those cartoons of Mohammed to advance a war of civilizations and expel Europeans from the Middle East seems undeniable. And the outcry following that Danish paper in running those cartoons – followed by other European newspapers in plastering those cartoons all over their front pages, created a storm which no one could have predicted.

The storm first broke last September, when Jyllands-Posten published 12 caricatures of Mohammed, including a lampoon of the Prophet with a terrorist bomb as a turban. In the Islamic faith, any depiction of the face of Mohammed is forbidden.

The Danish paper knew this. It published the cartoons to protest "the rejection of modern, secular society" by Muslims. The cartoons were thus a defiant provocation. And they succeeded.

The Middle East responded with a boycott of Danish foods and goods. But when, in the name of press solidarity, Le Soir and Le Monde in Paris, El Pais in Madrid and Die Welt in Berlin republished the cartoons on page one, Islam exploded. For this was an in-your-face declaration by the secularist media of the European Union that it will exercise its right to free speech by criticising any God, any Prophet, any faith, whenever it so chooses.

"Enough lessons from these reactionary bigots," said Serge Faubert, editor of Le Soir. "Just because the Quran bans images of Mohammed doesn't mean non-Muslims have to submit to this." Faubert, however, is not a Danish soldier in the Shi'ite sector of Iraq. Innocents will pay the price of his heroism.

The U.S.. State Department seemed to empathize with Muslim rage, stating that "inciting religious or ethnic hatred in this manner is unacceptable." But, within hours, State had retreated to neutral ground: "While we share the offense that Muslims have taken at these images, we at the same time vigorously defend the right of individuals to express points of view."

As of today the Danish consulate in Beirut has been burned, Danish embassies have been stormed, and Danes are fleeing the Middle East. Europeans are getting out of the West Bank, Gaza and Beirut, where mobs are attacking embassies and Christian churches. Islamic countries have recalled ambassadors from Copenhagen. People have been injured and property destroyed in mob assaults as far away as Indonesia. Relations between the West and the Islamic world have been dealt another rupturing blow.

And for what? What was the purpose printing the cartoons by the Europress? This what freedom of the press is all about – the freedom to criticise. There are a billion Muslims but the free European press has a right to speak out. Did Islam learn nothing from the Salman Rushdie episode? Or the firestorm that gripped the Islamic world when Christian ministers in the United States called Mohammed a "terrorist"?

European governments are wringing their hands over the rage and violence unleashed, but they seem paralyzed. What is the matter? They denounce press irresponsibility whilst they should be defending press freedom! Even friends of the West like Hamid Karzai in Afghanistan, President Hosni Mubarak in Egypt and Tayyip Erdogan in Turkey have denounced these cartoons as insults to Islamic values and deeply damaging to Western interests. The grip of international Islam - a political faith is strong to the point of some Muslim extremists wishing to impose their Sharia Law on the whole world.

British Foreign Minister Jack Straw deplored republication of the cartoons as "insensitive ... disrespectful ... wrong." But German Interior Minister Wolfgang Shauble haughtily dissented, "Here, in Europe, governments have nothing to say about which publisher publishes what."

What hypocrisy. When it comes to what Germans are most sensitive about, Hitler and the Holocaust, they are ruthless censors. British historian David Irving has spent three months in a Viennese prison awaiting trial on Feb. 20 for speeches he made 15 years ago in Austria. Skeptics and deniers of the Holocaust are prosecuted, fined and imprisoned in Europe with the enthusiastic endorsement of the European press. If the press were as brave to defend the rights of White Nationalists as they were to publish those cartoons we might see some REAL freedom emerging once again in Europe!

THE BPP SAYS SHARIA LAW IS FOR MUSLIMS AND NOT CHRISTIANS!

Nationalist Newsround

An illegal immigrant who murdered a woman in Germany before sneaking into the UK and brutally raping a woman in her own home at scissor point was jailed for life.
During her horrific two hour ordeal, his brave victim talked to Redoan Aitraho, gaining vital evidence that would lead to his arrest.
The 28 year old Moroccan climbed up the outside of her central London home and put socks over his hands before breaking in as she slept.
In total darkness, he ransacked her home for cameras, cash and mobile phones before grabbing a pair of scissors which he held to her throat whilst he raped her in her own bed.
He was arrested smoking a cannabis joint two days later and because he had told his victim he had travelled widely around Europe police sent his fingerprints to their European colleagues.
From this they discovered he was wanted for murder, armed robbery, a sex attack and a string of burglaries in Germany, where he went under a false name, posing as an Iraqi asylum seeker.
He had served a prison sentence for a violent robbery in Spain, been detained in Holland for illegally entering the country and had convictions for dishonesty in his native Morocco.
The 28 year old, identified by Moroccan authorities as Hicham Touil, admitted the murder to UK probation officers and psychiatrists where he shot a mum of two in the face during an armed raid on a chemist shop in Germany.
He went on the run following the murder in 2004 and within a month of arriving illegally in the UK in July last year, Aitraho raped the 38 year old social worker.
He swigged vodka as he dragged her round the house following the rape and when she made a dash for the door he pulled her back and sexually assaulted her again.
At this point, at 5.30am, her male flatmate returned home and Aitraho fled.
Describing the effect the brutal rape had on her, the 38 year old said in an impact statement: "I still have nightmares, so bad I have woken up and vomited.
"He didn't just rape me, he has stolen my independence, my confidence, my freedom and my happiness.
"Before the rape I was a positive friendly sociable person.
"Now I am constantly worried about my personal safety.
"I double and triple check all windows and doors, I sleep with the light on and am fully clothed at all times.
"I can't lose this feeling of despair, and it can sometimes be completely debilitating so that I don't want to leave the flat or answer the phone.
"I cry every day."

London's Belmarsh Prison will provide laptops to 28 top terror suspects, a decision that has shocked critics.
Officials at the facility -- which holds those arrested under the anti-terror law - say the computers are needed to help the suspects prepare their legal defence.
The laptops will not provide Internet access to the suspects, but critics say they can still be used for criminal activity.
"The prisoners could easily make CD-Roms, which could be handed to visitors, and orchestrate criminal activity from the inside," said one. "Inmates are incredibly resourceful. It wouldn't surprise me if they eventually managed to get the Internet on their laptops."
Other irate critics say the nearly $50,000 to be spent on the computers can be better used to increase security.
The Mirror said the facility currently is about a third understaffed.
Inmates at the prison include those accused of the July bombings in London, al-Qaida suspects and members of a Muslim bully boys' gang, the report said.

Police are investigating a shooting in Love Walk, Camberwell in south east London. A man was driving in Love Walk and had just turned into Ashworth Close. He stopped to allow two pedestrians to pass in the parking area of Ashworth Close.
As they passed his car, one of them produced a gun and shot him through the driver's window which was closed.
The 34 year old victim suffered an injury to his arm and was taken to hospital for treatment. The incident is being investigated by the specialist shootings team at Operation Trident.
The suspects are both described as black men in their early 20s.
Suspect 1 had dark skin, was of average build and about 5'8" to 5'10" tall. He was wearing dark clothing and possibly a dark coloured hat.
Suspect 2 is of average build and also about 5'8" to 5'10" tall. He was wearing a cream or grey patterned, hip length winter coat.

A church has been told it needs planning permission for a wooden cross in its grounds outside - because council penpushers say it is an advert. The minister has labelled the decision "political correctness gone mad".
It has highlighted a national planning law which means church leaders can be charged for erecting a cross outside their place of worship.
The local minister was told he would have to pay £75 for permission to erect the free-standing cross outside Dudley Wood Methodist Church.
Dudley Council said the classification of the cross as an advert is laid down in government guidelines. The Minister said: "I think this rule is utterly ridiculous, and I am very upset that such regulations exist."
The original church in Dudley Wood Road has been demolished to make way for housing. Services are held in the old Sunday School building in Quarry Road.
The congregation say few people realise that the Sunday School is being used despite a sign informing passers-by that the church is still open.

A centuries old festival has been forced to change its name from Darkie Days to Mummers days. People in the Cornish village of Padstow black up on Boxing Day and New Years Day and collect money for charity.
Local lefty lunatics actually complained to the police about the name "Darkie Days" as being racist even though the festival is hundreds of years old!

A REAL BRITISH CELEBRATION

It seems Gordon Brown, the Scottish Chancellor of the Exchequer, is calling for a national holiday to celebrate Britishness, similar to the American and French models. While this seen as a self-serving stunt to make him more acceptable as a potential Prime Minister, it has the merit of opening a useful debate about the real nature of Britishness.

Already we hear the usual suspects using words like 'diversity' when asked for their views on the subject, in an obvious attempt to pre-empt the form and content of the proposed celebration . So the following observations should help to clarify matters for all those people with a legitimate claim to Britishness :

- No one becomes British by political diktat.
- No one becomes British by declaration and disavowing their non-British origins.
- Only those with English, Scottish, Ulster or Welsh ancestry qualify as British in the eyes of their authentic compatriots
- Some Europeans may be regarded as British at one remove if they have been resident in this country long enough to become indistinguishable from the indigenous population.
- It is immediately obvious that anyone of non-European ancestry has no claim whatever to Britishness.
- A 'multi-cultural' Britain is therefore a contradiction in terms.
- The British are an ancestrally-related community with a shared history over many generations.
- The apparent anxiety of alien immigrants to qualify as 'British' is motivated by their desire to gain access to the benefits enjoyed by authentic British residents.
- 'Racial discrimination' is merely a pejorative description of racial loyalty and loyalty to one's own kind can never be other than commendable .
- 'Racism' strictly refers to uncharitable behaviour towards aliens, and must never be confused with the perfectly natural and wholesome preference for people of one's own race. For obvious reasons this distinction is ignored by alien malcontents and renegade politicians trying to exploit their votes.
- According to recent research, after some 65 years of alien immigration, hardly any of the indigenous population include blacks or Asians among their immediate friends.
- Those who now contend that this country is dependent on Third World immigrants for economic success and social services are left to explain who created the British Empire and maintained it through two world wars and a major economic depression.
- When a former Foreign Secretary was challenged to specify the alleged benefits of Third World immigration, all he could come up with was a popular curry dish actually 'invented' by the British!
- Those Third World immigrants with useful skills owe their first allegiance to their own homelands. That they choose to desert their own kind is enough to debar their attempts to become British residents.
- The indigenous people of Britain have never been asked to approve massive immigration into their homeland
- Moreover, every poll on the subject reveals an overwhelming opposition to it.
- The Race and Public Order Acts were introduced by renegade politicians to suppress public expression of resistance to multi-racialism
- That in itself is evidence of the fact that multi-racialism is a political diktat and will never be a social reality

The only government action needed to restore Britain to its own people is a new Citizenship Act and abolition of the Race and Public Order Acts and such action will never be forthcoming from a Lib/Lab/Con coalition which promotes multiracialism and submission to the European Union.

There is no prospect whatever of maintaining let alone improving the quality of life in Britain without repatriating immigrants to their countries of origin. In the meantime, every genuine Briton has a patriotic duty to frustrate renegade policies, and unseat the politicians who support them. That is the best possible way of celebrating Britishness, along with shunning any pseudo-British celebrations mounted by renegades and including anything which is not our British heritage.

SUPPORT OUR LOCAL TRADERS - STOP SCROOGE RENT RISES!

Bramley Shopping Centre's traders are under attack!

A popular butcher has been forced to leave the centre, a hardware store and three other shops are also at the risk of closure.
According to local residents these closures are the result of new leases and exorbitant rent increases.
Bramley Shopping Centre is a busy retail facility serving a wide area. Losing one popular trader is bad enough. Losing five or more is a scandal!

The Bramley branch of the British People's Party asks:

- Who is issuing these leases and setting rents so high that established traders are forced to leave?
- What will happen to vacated units and how can traders avoid charging high prices to cover the rent increases?
- How can Labour MP John Battle and local councillors stand by and let this happen?

THESE CLOSURES MUST STOP!

Arrests due over cartoon protests?

Arrests will be made "in the near future" over last month's protests in London against cartoons satirising the Prophet Muhammad, police have said. The Crown Prosecution Service, after receiving evidence from Scotland Yard, said there were grounds for arrests on suspicion of public order offences.
The protests took place outside the Danish Embassy on 3 and 4 February.
Placards were seen threatening a repeat of the 11 September terrorist attacks or the 7 July London bombings.

A Metropolitan Police spokesman said: "We have been advised today that there are sufficient grounds to arrest individuals for offences under the Public Order Act.

"This includes offences that are racially or religiously aggravated."

He said the expected arrests related to evidence gathered on 3 February.
Shadow home secretary David Davis on Tuesday wrote to Home Secretary Charles Clarke saying "justice must be seen to be done" over the protests and that the delay in making arrests was "unconscionable".
Scotland Yard received more than 500 complaints from members of the public about the demonstrations. Officers subsequently examined 60 hours of video from CCTV cameras and evidence-gathering teams deployed at the protests.
No arrests were made at the time.
Omar Khayam, 22, who dressed as a suicide bomber on 4 February, was later arrested and recalled to prison for breaching parole terms.
He had last year been freed early from a five-and-a-half-year jail term for dealing cocaine and heroin.
Can you imagine if White Nationalists had walked through the streets of London in this manner. Everybody would have been arrested IMMEDIATELY!
It is scandalous that as we write this article arrests are only 'due'! Just what does it take to shake a copper out of his political brainwashing?

THE TRAGEDY OF THE UKRAINE

At a time when the Globalists seem to recognise only one Holocaust, we would remind Vanguard readers of a real Holocaust - the genocide directed against the White Ukrainian people by the Stalinist Communists. Mass starvation was planned as well as repression of the worst kind. In the end over fifteen million Ukrainians perished - a proud people sacrificed on the altar of Marxism.

A Man-Made Famine raged through Ukraine, the ethnic-Ukrainian region of northern Caucasus, and the lower Volga River region in 1932-33. This resulted in the death of between 7 to 10 million people, mainly Ukrainians. This was instigated by Soviet leader Joseph Stalin and his henchman Lazar Kaganovich. The main goal of this artificial famine was to break the spirit of the Ukrainian farmer/peasant and to force them into collectivisation. The famine was also used as an effective tool to break the renaissance of Ukrainian culture that was occurring under approval of the communist government in Ukraine. Moscow perceived this as a threat to a Russo-Centric Soviet rule and therefore acted to crush this cultural renaissance in a most brutal manner.

In 1932, the Soviets increased the grain procurement quota for Ukraine by 44%. They were aware that this extraordinarily high quota would result in a grain shortage, therefore resulting in the inability of the Ukrainian peasant to feed themselves. Soviet law was quite clear in that no grain could be given to feed the peasants until the quota was met. Communist party officials with the aid of military troops and NKVD secret police units were used to move against peasants who may be hiding grain from the Soviet government. Even worse, an internal passport system was implemented to restrict movements of Ukrainian peasants so that they could not travel in search of food. Ukrainian grain was collected and stored in grain elevators that were guarded by military units & NKVD secret police units while Ukrainians were starving in the immediate area. The actions of this Moscow instigated action was a deliberate act of genocide against the Ukrainian peasants.

COMMUNISM KILLS!

AN END TO CATCH-22!

Round and round and round we go and where we shall stop nobody knows! The story of White Nationalism over the last five decades! Infighting; splits; accusations; infiltration; personal jealousy; corruption; hatred; mutual destruction – and still it goes on. No party or group is immune to it, it seems. The best White Nationalists are vilified whilst the worst spend 100% of their time in character assassination. These are the denizens of the night. The PC warriors who haunt the forums, chatrooms and guest books. Some stay up all night, beating out a rhythmic tattoo of hatred and innuendo against ANY OTHER WHITE NATIONALIST they take the slightest grudge too. Still darker motives lay behind the activities of others. They delight or purposely spread lies and dissension just too continually disrupt the National Movement.

Well the BPP has decided to take a totally different line with all this for if it continues, White Nationalism and our White Race WILL perish!

Can you imagine at some future date, whatever replaces Western Man as the inhabitants of these islands – perhaps something like the Morlochs from H.G. Wells's "Time Machine", scrabbling around the ruins of Trafalgar Square and perhaps picking up moldering Aryan skulls and wondering what happened to the people it belonged to?

Perhaps some fly-blown, tattered book will tell of the last few decades as the White Race perished and as a footnote maybe mention that the White Nationalists were so busy scoring points off each other that they passed into extinction without even noticing? Scary eh?

From now on the British People's Party will stand aside from all this nonsense and hatred. Here is what we ask our members to do:-

If you find your are being accused of this that or the other nonsense – NO MATTER HOW MUCH IT MAY UPSET YOU – ignore it!
Remember it is the rumour mongers and malicious individuals that have the problem NOT YOU – let them worry about it.

- If you receive a nasty e-mail then just reply "I have no comment to make". Throw up a stone wall and they will soon get bored with it.
- Don't get involved in Internet forum/Guestbook arguments. The Net is a weapon in our favour – do not let it be used to demoralise you.
- Make your golden rule be that you fight for the 14 Words and anything else is a waste of time and effort.
- The rumour-mongers have the problems in THEIR heads. Do not let them live in yours rent free!
- Keep away from chat rooms – sources of endless trouble and security problems.

Those are some guiding points. They are OFFICIAL BPP Policy. We do not get involved in fratricidal disputes. The days of Catch-22 for us are over!

OUR SYMBOL

The British People's Party symbol, the Celtic Cross, is used by other White Nationalist groups around the globe. It is an ancient and powerful symbol of the White Aryan race.

The cross although absorbed later by Christianity has its roots in the ancient Sunwheel symbols of our remote Aryan ancestors. They recognised the Sunwheel as the symbol of the Sun, of goodness and of light. So to with the Celtic Cross today.

All across our ancient countryside you will come across the Celtic Cross symbol. At roadsides, in fields, in churchyards and many other places, the symbol of White Nationalism stands as a mute testament to our deep rooted racial togetherness with the blood and soil of our country.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir:
I am outraged that the plans to ask foreign born Imams to take a "Britishness" test have been scrapped "in case they offend ethnic minorities". Foreign born Imams coming into Britain are a real worry to our security services and this was supposed to be one way to put even the smallest of checks on them. As usual the Labourites have backed down and God knows what terrorist clerics we will have coming in to add fuel to the flames of Islamic extremism and terrorism.

Stan Mordrew, Essex

Sir:
Have you heard of the "Working Lives Research Institute"? They exist to help Asylum Seekers claim benefits. When the illegals enter Britain this group actually hands them out "Welcome Packs" to show them the best way to get the most benefits the quickest. They also help to get them housed (not in detention camps but British houses). I would like to know who is behind this group and whether they are receiving government funding?

T.S, Surrey

Sir:
I have just joined the BPP and am dropping you a quick line to say how impressed I was at the speed I received party literature. I am also on the net so I get your excellent "Nationalist Week" every Monday too. A real breath of fresh air!

John James, Aberdeen

Sir:
I was astounded when the Chairman of the Tory Party, Francis Maude declared that immigration into Britain had been a huge success! He also stated the Tories had dumped their pledge to cap the number of Asylum seekers being allowed into Britain. So much for Tory promises. The Tories are also going to scrap the EU Worker Registration Scheme which levies £70 on Eastern Europeans working in Britain. Since that arch multi-racialist, David Cameron took over the Tories from its last Zionist leader, the Tories are doing more U-turns and telling more lies than ever before. Is Campbell out to set some kind of new record for Conservative duplicity?

D. Jones, Llannelli

Sir:
The appeals service looking into the cases of which Asylum Seekers need to be sent back is a joke. Last year the Government (I use the term loosely) said there were 30,000 backlog cases but this would be drastically reduced. This year the figure stands at 42,000! Apparently 65% of Asylum Seekers who lose their right to stay immediately appeal and the whole stupid charade just starts again. How much is all this costing us the British taxpayer?

Mrs.S.Robinson, Doncaster

Sir:
When I want tips on wrapping myself in our flag, I'll ask - I certainly don't want advice from Gordon Brown. The Chancellor that has done more to attack or surrender the core elements of British identity since I don't know when. The irony is that I agree with much of what Brown had to say, it's just that it is hard to stomach coming from one of the Marxist Mafia that runs Westminster.
His talk of of a Union flag in every school and public building is a fine idea - and one that I have long been pushing for.
But isn't it New Labour's loony councils that have forbidden patriotic Brits from displaying flags for fear of offending minorities?
He talks about celebrating our history. But isn't it Labour's core supporters who constantly tell us that we should be ashamed of our past?
Wasn't it the Government that decided to merge VJ Day and VE Day into one meaningless commemoration and celebration in the summer?
Now Brown's got the bare-faced cheek to suggest Remembrance Day should be a time to celebrate our Britishness.
I've got a better idea. Make St. George's Day into a national holiday then we English could celebrate our Englishness in the same manner our kindred Welsh, Scots and Irish can celebrate their national holidays.
For this to happen of course would require the likes of Ken Livingstone and other White-hating councillors to put as much money into our national day as they do into any minority group that appears on their front door with hijab, turban or skull cap in hand!

Patriot, St Albans

Sir:
Can I bring your attention to a new book "The Retreat of Reason" which hits out at PC lies. Political correctness is wrecking British society because it twists the truth says the book.
The author Anthony Brown says the PC Brigade blamed Britain's high HIV infection rate on teenagers having unsafe sex. But the factually correct truth is the rise is largely down to the arrival of HIV positive African immigrants.
Anthony Brown as you can see does not mince his words and I urge vanguard readers to get this book.

K.Simpson, Bedford

Sir:
I have just learned that immigration officers are being taken off ports and airports to work on complaints from asylum seekers!
The Immigration Companies Audit Committee has storerooms holding thousands of files awaiting decisions on moans about staff from Asylum Seekers!

Jim Conner, Belfast

STAND BY DAVID IRVING!

David Irving is at the epicentrum of events that are challenging and changing the world that we have experienced since the end of the Second World War: the sixty years that have seen endless waves of Third World immigrants permitted and encouraged to enter Britain and all other White countries, where Race Acts have been enacted to take away our rights to Free Speech, and all justified by means of endless propaganda about the 'Holocaust'.
David Irving's arrest last November in Austria, and now his jailing for three years has exposed for all to see and beyond all denying the reality that lies behind all the talk of "Democracy" and our "Freedom of Speech" AND the British press are being forced to acknowledge this.

Following his arrest last year:

Tory M.P., Ann Widdecombe, wrote in the "Daily Express", of 30. Nov. 2005, "Irving should not be in prison."
The "Independent" of 29. Nov. 2005 wrote, "Free speech is for everybody - even David Irving".
On the 20. January of this year, the "Times" wrote, "Irving's right to hold his opinions must be defended. Austria's action in locking up David Irving is offensive to free speech".
On the eve of Irving's trial, the London "Financial Times" of 18/19 February 2006 under the headline, "Historical truth speaks for itself", wrote:
Those Western countries with laws against Holocaust denial are in a tricky position. They must undo laws that have proved unworkable". And the "F.T." quoted the legal philosopher, Ronald Dworkin to the effect that the European Convention on Human Rights should be used to strike down laws banning Holocaust denial.

The "Times" on 21 . February, ran the jailing of Irving on their front-page, and the headline announced the backlash against the jailing.

Gerald Howarth, the Tory M.P. for Aldershot and the historian, Anthony Beevor, both condemned the imprisonment.

Support for David Irving: letters and cards, with no political content, should be sent to:

IT'S A FIGHT FOR THE WHITE WORLD!

The BPP is a White Nationalist Organisation - we believe in a STRONG Britain and a FREE Britain - we are not "Little Englanders" though. We recognise the struggle is a WORLDWIDE one!

LET'S RESTATE OUR AIMS

We can narrow these down to four primary ones:-

1 To encourage Aryan unity amongst White Freedom Fighters around the world
2 To bring you news of SUCCESSES that the White Power Movement worldwide is achieving
3 To start to stop the incestuous and racially destructive backbiting that goes on ALL THE TIME!
4 To help to bring about a great World Confederation of Aryan Unity (phew!)

A DEFINITION - We have often called ourselves White Nationalists/British Nationalists and many other variations on a theme - because the NEW WORLD ORDER (NWO) is now attacking our Aryan folk on all sides and across all national boundaries - we feel the term Aryan Freedom Fighters is a just one.

We hope this covers every group, organisation and individual on our growing circulation list.

LETS STOP THE HATE!

For as long as we have been active in the struggle against ZOG, (and that's a few decades too many!) - most of the time has been spent by most of the people involved in rubbishing each other rather than attacking the REAL ENEMY. One grouplet scores a point off another and hey - victory is round the corner. Like hell it is!

THE BPP - GOING IT ALONE - COME TO US AND JOIN THE STRUGGLE!

MINISTRY OF RACIAL HARMONY – A TALE OF THE NEAR FUTURE

John Smith was bundled from the back of the black van which bore the words on the side "Harmony", "Equality", "Rainbow Nation". It was a van which half an hour ago he had been dragged from his house and thrown into. It was a Black Maria (though nobody would dare use THAT term these days!) of the Anti-Hate Police.

John Smith blinked in the sudden sunlight and started up at the black, monolithic towering pyramid that was the Ministry of Racial Harmony. The dreaded place. A place mentioned in whispers by those White patriots scattered and disorganised in this Great Britain which had now been ruled by its Marxist New Labour Government for over thirty years.

John Smith recalled his crime. Some visitor, he didn't know which one had spotted an old atlas in his bookcase and reported it. When the Anti-Hate Police swooped at dawn that morning they hard torn his bookcase apart looking for banned literature – Enid Blyton, Kipling, Agatha Christie, Conan Doyle amongst many others – but it was the atlas they were after. It was an old school atlas from the 1930's but showed a large part of the world coloured in red, with the British Empire at its height. There and then John Smith was accused of "glorifying slavery and colonialism" under some section or other of the thirty plus Hate Laws which then existed in Britain.

Two helmeted Hate Police, clad in black and with faces invisible behind mirrored visors hauled him through the barbed wire gates and through the heavily fortified steel entrance doors. He was thrown unceremoniously into a cell, which contained three other prisoners. He looked gingerly around at his fellow Whites who stared morosely at the walls. Hours past and eventually they swapped stories or at least reasons why they were there. One was in for whilst drunk the night before criticising the complete absence of free speech. Another was in for staring 'menacingly' at an immigrant , even though he denied it, he had been reported by a zealous liberal type in the bar who had frantically dialled the Hate Police. Another had torn down a "Rainbow Nation" poster in a pent up rage. The final prisoner was guilty of a far more serious crime and which clearly shocked the other prisoners. He had been caught spraying the words "Britain for the British" in paint on one of the walls of the many crumbling buildings of a decaying London, where the only new ones were those built to house the ever expanding industry of Race Relations, Anti-Hate Bureaus and other Government buildings which proliferated into investigate and control every walk of life in this Marxist New Labour Britain.

John Smith looked at him pityingly – that carried the death penalty!

In a while John Smith was hauled before an Anti-Hate Tribunal, the six members of which represented just a fraction of the many races now sharing an ever crowded British soil in Harmony, Love and Peace (despite what the whispers about the soaring crime rate said).

John Smith was lucky. He received thirty days in a Race Relations Re-education camp. Of the other three, two received long terms and one a few days later in some dingy basement room was shot in the back of the head.

This short fictional story of course has a happy ending – on his release John Smith NEVER looked at an atlas again!

Who is he trying to kid?

WHITE WORKERS UNDER ATTACK BY GLOBALIST CAPITALISTS

Since arch-traitor Margaret Thatcher smashed the Trades Unions for her ZOG Capitalist bosses – White workers rights have been eroded with each passing year. The latest attack comes in the form of the threatened withdrawal of pension funds to new and in some cases, existing workers. Many big Globalist firms are pushing this.

Thatcher took on the strongest union – the National Union of Mineworkers – and smashed them, basically using Tory controlled police repression. Across Yorkshire, Derbyshire, South Wales and other coal mining areas, Thatcher forcibly closed the pits. Most of these pits had years of life left in them. To make matters worse, since the Tories wrecked our British mining industry, the Government have been importing cheap coal from Poland, Belgium, Germany and other countries, adversely affecting our balance of trade.

Worse still, the mines were the focal point of community life. The Miner's Social club in a town was the place that workers and their families came to relax and enjoy a hard-earned rest. Miner's Welfare looked after the health of the miners and their families, whilst the wages earned by the mining workforce put money and life into small local businesses in our mining towns across the country.

What now remains of these once prosperous places? Take for example, the small town of Featherstone in Yorkshire. This had a large coal mine, which had years of coal left in it. The mine was closed when the strike of the workers and their families was broken. The miners were given redundancy payments which were soon spent – some were "retrained" (i.e. they were lucky to get a job in Macdonalds), whilst the rest were thrown on the scrap heap. The businesses in the town suffered, as there was a lot less cash to be spent in them. The young men of the town, who would naturally have followed their fathers into a mining career, are now for the most part, unemployed and disillusioned. Many have turned to drugs, which are pushed openly in the area by Alien drug gangs from Bradford and Leeds. A once thriving community – wrecked!

The same could be said of the once healthy fishing towns, whose fleets have been reduced to spectres of their former selves, or of ship building areas such as Clydeside and Belfast. The same could be said of major engineering towns and cities such as Birmingham and Sheffield. The same could be said of the great mill towns of the North – Manchester, Bolton, Leeds, Oldham and a host of others.

In their place we have "service" towns or at best light industry. At the same time shoddy foreign goods are pouring into Britain from Taiwan, Hong Kong, China and other South Asian sweatshop economies. Middlemen importers – themselves often of alien immigrant origin – who have no stake in or love of this country and couldn't give a damn about its wrecked economy distribute these.

What is left of legal protection for the White working people, both blue and white collar if Great Britain? Very little. The Trades Unions are now toothless bulldogs with little power. Belatedly, as with the Postal Unions, they have finally realised that the old System does not represent workers rights and are withdrawing support from the anti-White workers "New" Labour party. If enough unions withhold cash from the Labour Party – and they should – then this sell out party, led by the grinning buffoon Blair, could and SHOULD go bankrupt. It is all they deserve.

The so-called Marxists and International Socialists, and the new Communists are interested only in pandering to the ethnic minorities and the sexual deviants. There interest in the White workers stops dead at the word "White"!

Only the radical anti-Capitalist, anti-Communist and anti-Globalist forces of White Nationalism really care and represent the interests of White working people of all walks of life and at all levels of society. White Nationalism can rebuild Britain by putting British industry, agriculture and fisheries FIRST and cheap and nasty foreign imports LAST.

We demand that the capital industry be rebuilt; British youth be given some hope that they can get a job that matters and not in one of the fake service industries which Blair's "Cool Britannia" is so fond of. We demand finally that a strong National Labour Front be built against the predatory money Capitalists who recognise no borders and no national interests. They are internationalists, like their Communist twins and the smashing of races and nations – partly through the destruction of workers rights – is their goal.

Left: Margaret Thatcher - systematically destroyed White Worker's rights. The British People's Party is dedicated to restoring those rights and rebuilding a Trades Union Movement under a National Worker's Front.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE! - MULTI-RACIALISM ISN'T WORKING!

While many within the quacking liberal community are still discussing whether Trevor Phillips' claims that Britain is edging towards racial and religious segregation are really true or not, Black academic, Paul Gilroy said the head of the Commission for Race Equality (CRE) is both "right" and "bold".

In an interview with "Black Britain" (can you imagine a paper called "White Britain"?) the Professor of Social Theory at the London School of Economics (LSE) said although Britain didn't have "legal [or] formal" segregation, he added:

"I think Trevor Phillips is right in pointing to the way that segregation is intensifying in the inner-cities, interpersonal relationships and intensifying in the education system and I think those are real issues," he said.

British grandma with White grandchildren - just what changes has she seen in her lifetime as Britain plunges into the abyss?

In a speech last night made to Manchester council, Mr Phillips said that Britain was "sleepwalking" its way into racial segregation and he also warned that some parts of the country were transforming into "fully-fledged ghettos".

Excerpts of Mr Phillip's speech were leaked to the press earlier this week in which he also said, "we are becoming strangers to each other and leaving communities to be marooned."

The comments came as the government announced that a year-long investigation into the alienation and prejudice experienced by Black and ethnic people will be launched. (What about the alienation and prejudice against Whites?)

The emerging Commission for Integration and Cohesion will aim to build links with racial and religious groups often overlooked in political debate.
(Another quango we do NOT need!)

Professor Gilroy who taught at the prestigious Yale university in the United States for 6 years, said the segregation is the "effect" of many elements operating within the society, including how various communities throughout the country who tend to stick together because of various reasons.

With events such as September 11, more recently the July 7 terror attacks in London and the Bradford race riots in 2001, the cracks in the well-polished British "multi-cultural" facade are becoming more apparent and in some respects more destructive.

BPP says:
They are now running around like headless chickens after suddenly "discovering" multi-racialism has broken down! Why didn't they just knock on some old White lady's door in Brixton and ask HER?

More than 345,000 East Europeans have come to Britain since the expansion of the EU - 15 times more than ministers predicted.

The figure is on course to reach 400,000 by May, the two-year anniversary of the union's enlargement. The Government had originally said between 5,000 and 13,000 would arrive each year. The influx of East Europeans includes only those who have signed up to the Home Office's worker registration scheme. It does not include the self-employed. Immigration minister Tony McNulty said the workers are 'filling important vacancies' and 'making a welcome contribution'.
But Shadow Home Secretary David Davis said the fact that far more immigrants are arriving than the Government had estimated, is a further indictment that it has no grasp on the facts and figures of immigration. Government figures released yesterday (28.2.06) also revealed that the backlog of 285,000 failed asylum seekers is still growing.

Tony Blair had promised that by the end of last year there would be more failed asylum seekers deported than there were new unfounded claimants.

UNDER THE RAVEN'S BANNER

by Eddy Morrison

Under the Raven's Banner
before the Black Crows come
The shield wall stands immobile and a grey mist flits the sun

Under the Raven's Banner
The Norsemen stand affirm and grim faced Northern warriors gaze down in the wakening dawn

Under the Raven's Banner
a slow chant then begins and swords slap hard on firm held shields as the Saxon fyrd draws in then from under the Raven's Banner the shields are held up high as a wind of rushing arrows

darkens a lightening sky

Under the Raven's Banner
sword arms sweep down on helms and a line of Saxon warriors presses in, then overwhelms

Fallen the Raven's Banner fallen the kindred of Thor and a Saxon banner flies aloft and the Norsemen come no more

LIBERAL DOGMA IS EVIL

If there was any need of confirmation that white western European civilization is in decline one need look no further than two recent contrasting sentences both passed by judicial systems representative of the New World Order in which we are now forced to live.

The first sentence was passed on the "historian of truth" David Irving for doing nothing more than using words to express a deeply seated belief that the so called holocaust has been deliberately exaggerated and is presently being used by politicians of the left to bully us into accepting their evil agenda which will result in Whites becoming a minority in their own land. For this Irving has been jailed for 3 years.

The second sentence was recently passed on an Asian man in Burnley for knocking over and killing a little white girl in his car (he was un-insured) His name is Mohammed Hussein & he received a sentence of just 12 weeks. The little girl is named Levi Bleasdale.

Proof as if any proof were needed that we are on the verge of societal chaos.

WHAT IS DISTRIBUTISM?

The British People's Party often describes its economic polices as "Distributist". What does this mean? Some totally misguided critics have thought that by Distributism we have in mind some form of primitive Communism. Nothing could be further from the truth. Our opposition to the ideas of Marx and Communism is total.

Communism with its monopolistic State control of all aspects of a country's economy and Capitalism which seeks monopolies and through more and more mergers and take-overs performs much the same role as Communism are, it can be seen, very similar.

Distributism seeks a totally different way to economic prosperity. We are very aware that the people with real enterprise are the small traders, artisans and craftsmen. People who have a real pride in their work or business because they own it or a have a very big personal share in it. Similarly co-operative ventures where, although the business is privately run, its customers are given the chance to have a share in its profits.

The Co-operative movement in Britain was a good case in point though it is rapidly being submerged in a tide of Internationalist takeovers.

Distributism based on small private enterprise seeks just what it says - the widest possible distribution of goods and services by people who are directly benefiting themselves from it. In a world of Global Capitalism and the domination of Super rich multi-national companies, the world of the small shopkeeper, trader and craftsman is rapidly disappearing. Men and women owe no allegiance to the vast unidentifiable conglomerates they work for and just try and milk the system they work for as they have no personal interest in it other than drawing a wage.

Distributism seeks to replace these faceless global corporations with a just and honest economic system that will give back to the individual the right to practice private enterprise and the freedom to be proud of a job or service well done.

One of the originators of Distributist ideals, Hilaire Belloc, writing in 1936, compared Marxism and Capitalism with Distributism thus:

"The only economic difference between a herd of subservient Russians and a mob of free Englishmen pouring into a factory of a morning is that the latter are exploited by private profit, the former by the State in communal fashion. The motive of the Russian masters is to establish a comfortable bureaucracy for themselves and their friends out of the proletariat labour. The motive of the English masters is to increase their private fortunes out of proletariat labour. But we want something different from either.

There is a third form of society and it is the only one in which sufficiency and security can be combined with freedom and that form is a society in which property is well distributed a so large a proportion of the families in the State severally own and therefore control the means of production as to determine the general tone of society; making it neither Capitalist, nor Communist, but Proprietory."

LET'S WIN MEADOWHEAD WARD IN 2006!

On Sunday 5th March, BPP and EFP members carried out a mass leaflet drop in the Meadowhead Ward in Blackburn. The candidate is Mark Cotterill who last year gained a spectacular 25.6% of the vote! This year, Mark - England First Party leader and leading BPP member aims to get in. He has every chance. The ward is compact and Mark has a terrific amount of local support which was noticed by BPP members who were helping out in the campaign. Getting Mark elected would be a great victory for White Nationalism and we urge all White Nationalists to put in as much effort as possible to ensure Mark becomes Councillor Cotterill where he can really give ZOG a run for their money on Blackburn council!

We will update this site with regular reports on the progress of the campaign.

Tutor defends 'racist' stance

Black pupils tend to under-achieve compared with other ethnic groups says Dr Frank Ellis.

The Leeds University academic at the centre of a racism row has defended his view that black people have a lower average IQ than white people.

Dr Frank Ellis, a Russian tutor, says data stretching back 100 years points to a "persistent deviation" in the average IQ of black and white people.

More than 500 students have signed a petition calling for him to be sacked.

Leeds University said his views were "abhorrent" but there was no evidence he had discriminated against students.

Dr Ellis has expressed support for the Bell Curve theory, examined in a book by Richard Hernnstein and Charles Murray, which concludes that ethnicity can play a part in IQ levels.

"I have read an enormous amount of literature on this subject and I find it extremely convincing," he told BBC Radio 5 Live.

He praised the work of scholars such as Hans Eysenck and Arthur Jensen who have come to similar conclusions. Their opponents were worried about the implications for equal opportunities, he said.

He said these ideas do not preclude the existence of some black people of exceptional intelligence.

"But we have to accept, I believe, that there are these differences," he continued.

"The way to deal with this is not to treat people as groups, but to treat them as individuals."

Dr Ellis said the assumption that IQ tests are the most valid way of testing intelligence was the "dirty little secret" of psychology, because society as a whole did not accept this.

He said he became interested in the issue of censoring sensitive debates through his studies of the media under Soviet and post-Soviet regimes.

He added that labelling him a racist was "an attempt to close down any discussion" and an attack on his freedom of speech.

"These days a racist is anything you don't like - it's a hate word. I have no strong feelings towards black people either way."

He said he had never treated any black student in a different way to any white student, and he had "done absolutely nothing wrong".

Leeds BPP give their total support to Frank Ellis in his fight to search for and teach the truth.

He is standing up to the red-liberal rabble at Leeds University and is not backing down on his stated views on race and intelligence.

He is a brave man and we need more University dons such as Dr. Ellis to brave the Marxist-Liberal establishment and stand by their views for freedom of thought, speech and action!

THE BNP AND THE BPP

The British People's Party tries its very best to stay away from criticising or interfering in the affairs of any other Nationalist group in Britain. Indeed we have a policy very much of "Ourselves Alone". As such we have made no criticism of the BNP in Vanguard since we started the magazine. However, we feel that readers deserve to know the great gulf that now separates the BPP and the BNP and indeed why that ever widening gulf explains the reason as to why the BPP came in to existence.

The BNP was formed in 1982 and many of the BPP were founder members of the party. It was born out of the New National Front which urgently needed a name change. Until 1999, the BNP was ably led by John Tyndall, unfortunately no longer with us but who remains the BPP's spiritual leader. Up to that time, the BNP was and remained a solid and true racial-nationalist movement. There were no splits, little disruption and under JT's leadership the BNP made history by getting the first White Nationalist elected when Derek Beacon became a councillor under the slogan "Rights for Whites".

All during this time, the current leader of the BNP - Nick Griffin was very much in the wasteland after the failure of various groups he had started -some weird and odd indeed. During this time Griffin did little else but attack the BNP at every and any opportunity. However in 1997, Griffin 'saw the light' and was allowed back in to the BNP. His undoubted talents as a writer were put to good use and he became editor of 'Spearhead', relieving John Tyndall of a heavy monthly commitment so he could devote more time to leading the party. In 1999, Griffin, prompted mainly by convicted bomber Tony Lecomber agitated against John Tyndall in a most vile and underhand manner and succeeded in fooling a large majority of the party that he was the coming man and the real leader. Unfortunately they voted him in.

He responded by expelling John Tyndall and most of his supporters and then set about transforming the BNP from a White Nationalist Organisation into a populist, ethno-nationalist one, junking in the process all the basic principles of White Nationalism. JT's supporters fought back hard through the Spearhead Group but with the death of John Tyndall whom Griffin and Lecomber had by that time been made a proscribed man, we, JT's supporters eventually formed the BPP to give White Nationalists the choice of having a really honest and true to principle White Nationalist organisation to follow.

We know that there are still some White Nationalists inside the BNP though they are becoming a dwindling minority. They are hanging on in there in the very feint hope that somehow a White Nationalist will once again take over leadership of the BNP. Meanwhile Griffin has filled up the leadership and all the key positions in the BNP with turncoats (former White Nationalists such as John Bean who now go about competing to be more "anti-nazi" than the the next crony). The majority of the BNP leadership can by no stretch of the imagination be considered White Nationalist and in fact creatures such as Lee Barnes - the BNP "Legal Advisor" denigrates White Nationalist on the ever more insipid BNP website at any and every opportunity.

Ignoring the lessons of the past Griffins new BNP hammers away at establishing its anti-Nazi credentials, opening the ranks of the organisation to Jews - and recently making a drive to recruit as many Jewish members as possible, in some strange hope that the ZOG controlled media will all of a sudden start treating the BNP as a "respectable" party. This of course had not happened and the anti-Nazi BNP is still labelled fascist at every opportunity by the gutter media

The whole Griffin experiment has been a dismal failure. He has driven out just about every decent person from the Party and turned it into a pseudo-Tory organisation. For any REAL White Nationalist there is now only one serious choice - the British People's Party which remains true to the founding principles of the BNP and will forever fight ZOG on its own terms. The BPP also stay true to the Fourteen Words - "We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children" which the BNP have now repudiated.

For White Nationalists in the UK there is now no choice - if you are still in the BNP you are in a multi-racial party. Follow your conscience and your heart and give your support to the BPP - and do it now!

GOD UPSET WITH BLAIR!

A high-level leak has revealed that God is "furious" at Tony Blair's attempts to implicate him in the bombing of Iraq. Sources close to the archangel Gabriel report him as describing the Almighty as "hopping mad ... with sanctimonious yet unscrupulous politicians claiming He would condone their bestial activities when He has no way of going public Himself, owing to the MMW agreement" (a reference to the long-established Moving in Mysterious Ways concordat).

Article continues

Mr Blair went public about God on Michael Parkinson's TV show. "If you have faith about these things," he said, "then you realise that judgment is made by other people. If you believe in God, it's made by God as well." As is customary with Mr Blair's statements, it's rather hard to tease out what he is actually saying; but the gist is clearly that if God didn't actually tell him to bomb Iraq, then the Almighty would certainly agree it was the right thing to do.

"If Tony Blair thinks his friendship with George W Bush is worth rubbing out a couple of hundred thousand Iraqi men, women and children, then that's something he can talk over with me later," said God. "But when he starts publicly claiming that's the way I do the arithmetic too, it's time I put my foot down!" It is well known that God has a very big foot.

A source says Gabriel has spent days trying to dissuade the Almighty from loosing a plague of toads upon the Blair family. Gabriel reminded God that Cherie and the children had nothing to do with Tony's decisions. God's response, it is reliably reported, was: "Blair says the Iraqis are lucky to have got bombed, so how can he complain if his family gets a few toads in the bath?"

Blair - Heaven can wait!

The archangel is said to be ticked off with God's ability to provide glib answers without even thinking.

What has particularly incensed the Almighty is that Mr Blair made the claim on the Parkinson show. "If he'd done it on Richard and Judy I could have forgiven a lot," He is reported to have said.

The archangel reported that the Almighty has become increasingly irritated with the vogue for politicians to claim that He is behind their policies - especially if these involve killing large numbers of humans. According to Gabriel, God spake these words: "That George W Bush once had the nerve to say: 'God told me to go end the tyranny in Iraq, and I did.' Well, let me tell you I did no such thing! If I'd wanted to get rid of Saddam Hussein, I could have given him pneumonia. I didn't need the president of the United States to send in hundreds of heavy bombers and thousands of missiles to destroy Iraq - even though I appreciate that Halliburton needed to fill its order books."

"How do Bush and Blair think it makes me look to all those parents who have lost sons and daughters in this grubby business? Don't they know that the Muslims they're taking out worship the same Me that they do? It's a public relations disaster that ought to set Christianity back hundreds of years. Though knowing the fundamentalists, it'll probably have the reverse effect."

The archangel further revealed that he had been advised by no less a person than Alastair Campbell to warn God to keep out of politics. "But it's hard to get God to do anything He doesn't want to," sighed the archangel. "It's all to do with what He calls 'free will', though a lot of us have a problem working that one out, since He's omnipotent and omniscient."

"We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children" - the basis of BPP policy!

Drummer Hodge

by Thomas Hardy

(Submitted by Steve, Lincoln BPP)

They throw in Drummer Hodge, to rest
Uncoffined – just as found:
His landmark is a kopje-crest
That breaks the veldt around;
And foreign constellations west
Each night above his mound.

Young Hodge the Drummer never knew –
Fresh from his Wessex home –
The meaning of the broad Karoo,
The Bush, the dusty loam,
And why uprose to nightly view
Strange stars amid the gloam.

Yet portion of that unknown plain
Will Hodge forever be;
His homely Northern breast and brain
Grow to some Southern tree,
And strange-eyed constellation reign
His stars eternally.

Christians 'are being ignored' as ministers court other faiths

MINISTERS are being accused of anti-Christian bias after spending more to mark Ramadan, Eid ul-Fitr, Diwali and Chinese new year than they do on Easter and Christmas.

The Home Office spent more than £15,000 in a week on events celebrating Muslim and Hindu religious feasts, according to figures released to Parliament. The Department for Transport (DfT) sent staff to minority events in Birmingham and Swansea but did nothing for Christmas except tell workers about carol concerts. The Foreign and Commonwealth Office hosted VIP receptions to mark dates on the Muslim and Chinese calendars but has no plans to observe the main Christian festival of Easter.

Whitehall's response to important cultural dates was uncovered in a number of Commons questions by David Davies, Conservative MP for Monmouth, who complained of "anti-Christian prejudice".
One government department spokeswoman said that it used religious events to fulfil its legal obligations to reach minority communities. Critics say that such strategies risk promoting sectarianism as they define people by their religion.
Claire Rayner, the broadcaster and honorary associate of the National Secular Society, said: "It's wrong. It makes separateness more important. Really, the Government should stand aside from religion. The Government is in a sense proselytising, which is not what our taxes were designed for."

Ted Cantle, whose inquiry into race riots in northern Britain in 2001 highlighted polarisation, said: "We have often promoted events which feature one community rather than another. We have created a degree of separateness through that." Census figures show more than 60 per cent of black Britons are Christians, but the Government appears to use secular paths to reach them.

The Home Office disclosed that it had invited 200 guests from the Muslim, Hindu and Sikh communities to an Eid/ Diwali celebration on November 14, at a cost of £8,933. An internal staff event six days earlier marking the same festivals cost £7,557. The DfT spent £300 on a "celebration of culture" for staff to mark Diwali and Eid. The DVLA's "diversity team" attended a Chinese new year celebration in Swansea while the Highways Agency sent staff to a Diwali event at the NEC in Birmingham.

Iran Focus

Tehran, Iran, Mar. 06 – Former German Chancellor Helmut Kohl reportedly told Iranian businessmen in Germany that he agreed with statements by Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad that the Holocaust was a "myth", the semi-official Jomhouri Islami reported on Monday.

The government-owned daily wrote that at a dinner gala with Iranian hoteliers and entrepreneurs, Kohl said that he "heartily agreed" with Ahmadinejad's remarks about the Holocaust.

"What Ahmadinejad said about the Holocaust was in our bosoms", the former German chancellor was quoted as saying. "For years we wanted to say this, but we did not have the courage to speak out".

Ahmadinejad caused an international furore last year when he declared that the Holocaust was a "myth" and threatened that Israel must be "off the map His comments were supported by senior Iranian , including Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei and former president Ayatollah Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani.

The country's state-run media have systematically defended the position the Iranian president and given extensive coverage to historians and experts who deny the Holocaust took place.

Israel and the rest of the leadership of World Zionism are of course going frantic the Holocaust Discussion which Iran is hosting. It is hoped to attract senior Revisionist historians from across the world although Germany had already withdrawn the passport of Horst Mahler so that he cannot attend the Iranian Holocaust Conference.

Hopefully this will not stop many other leading Western Revisionists from getting to the unique Iranian conference.

Freemasonry? NO!

Can a Freemason join our Movement? The answer is no. For a variety of reasons we are opposed to Masonry in Great Britain and for that matter throughout the rest of the world.

Masonry has a long history, and it is a long history of conspiracy and trouble making. Many lower Masons (below the 33rd Degree) think they are part of some innocent charitable institution. They are being fooled. There are actually dozens more Degrees of Masonry above the 33rd and these higher Masons, linked to other shadowy power Globalists such as the Bilderbergers are dangerous. They appreciate only two things - money and power!

With Masonry there is another society - the Illuminati, started in the 17th century by Adam Weishaupt in Austria. This is a secret society within a secret society and the long arms of the Illuminati can be found fiddling in many of the world's problems. They are dedicated to the overthrow of Nation States and the formation of a New World Order under of course THEIR leadership.

There is also a social aspect to Freemasonry in Britain. It is not healthy for a secret society which works to put its own members interests first above and before the rest of society. The British Police and the Judiciary are two glaring examples of Masonry's pernicious influence. It is not possible to rise high in either profession unless you are a member of the 'Craft', as Masonry is also known. The British People's Party would outlaw Freemasonry as a secret and internationalist subversive society working to undermine the British state.
